Mrs T Dean, Leader of the Liberal Democrat Group, will propose,
Mr M Whybrow, Green Party representative, will second that:

"This Council agrees that it is important that employees should receive a wage which reflects the cost of living in Kent. The Council therefore agrees to undertake a cross-party investigation into becoming a Living Wage Employer, the findings of which will be reported to the Personnel Committee. The aim is that, as a minimum, KCC will pay the Living Wage, as defined by the Joseph Rowntree Foundation, to all staff and that this would also become a mandatory requirement for all new commissioned service contracts and, where feasible, would be added when existing contracts are renewed. KCC would seek Living Wage Employer accreditation through the Living Wage Foundation."
