Red Hill Trust	Mrs S Prendergast (Con)	The Red Hill Trust was founded in 1948 to manage a school for children with emotional and behavioural difficulties. It was established at Charlton Court in East Sutton, Maidstone, taking its name from earlier premises in Chislehurst, Kent. For nearly 50 years it provided boarding education for about 50 boys with emotional and behavioural problems who had been referred by local authorities across the South-East. It eventually closed in 1992 as the government instituted the policy of integration into mainstream schools. The property has been sold. The Trustees are now in a position to make grants to organisations which have similar objectives to those of the original Trust. The Clerk of the Red Hill Trustees, 2 Fulbert Drive,
