Aims and Objectives

A key decision that will permit the Public Rights of Way and Access Service to accept the delegation of Highways Act 1980 section 118ZA and 119ZA powers from District Councils on the introduction of these new powers.

The aim is to :

- a. secure economies of scale in terms of expertise, knowledge and meeting the ancillary requirements of the new provisions
- b. remove the burden the function would place on Districts
- c. ensure greater consistency in the delivery of the function
- d. it may mitigate potentially adverse financial/ resource impacts resulting from poor proposals or poorly drafted orders.

Section B – Evidence

Do you have data related to the protected groups of the people impacted by this activity?

Yes

It is possible to get the data in a timely and cost effective way?

Yes

Is there national evidence/data that you can use?
Yes
Have you consulted with stakeholders?
Not Applicable
Who have you involved, consulted and engaged with?
The decision relates to the administration of changes to primary legislation to be introduced by Government. Consultation with stakeholders took place as part of the Parliamentary processes through which the legislation was introduced.
While the public path orders orders that may be made in consequence of the legislative changes may impact on stakeholders and those with protected characteristics they are subject to separate consultation.
