Aims and Objectives

The Everyday Life Activities (EDLA) contract commenced on 01 October 2022.

The contract was designed to offer a flexible and adaptable approach to day services, allowing people to choose different levels of attendance, moving away from the traditional models and times of delivery.

The objective of the project is to consider options that will allow decision makers to make an informed decision about extending the EDLA contract as it is due to end September 2026.

This EQIA is prepared to support the option to extend with some actions to refine.

Key data and facts of the project are:

- Contract Ends 30 September 2026
- Contract value £10.9m

1089 people are utilising the EDLA Contract per week

- 160 of these people are also in Residential Care

- 485 of these people are in Supported Living
- 444 of these people live in their own homes

Details of Positive Impacts

To improve the experience of the people supported through the current contract, their carers and families. People that we support include those from protected characteristics groups including:

- Age;
- Disability;
- Religion;
- Race; and
- Carers.

The extension will maintain service continuity for people aged 18 and over with learning disabilities, physical disabilities and mental health needs. During this period, the Council will undertake recommissioning to implement a more sustainable and responsive service model for the future.
