| Action taken under delegated powers in consultation with the chair | Gravesham             | The additional Governor PoolMrs Yvonne HunterMr Anthony Moffat  | Dover Road Community Primary School has recently been judged inadequate by Ofsted and as a result has been placed under special measures. Simon Webb (Area Education Officer for West Kent) approached Mr Moffat and Mrs Hunter because of their experience of working with schools in difficult circumstances. It was highlighted to the chair that Mrs Hunter is a head teacher at Temple Hill school in Dartford but it is her experience in helping to turn around schools which lends reason to why she should become a member of the additional governor pool and assist Dover Road. The request was submitted and agreed by the chair. |           |
