

* At this point, the committee would decide whether any future consideration of the issue would be by the committee or the Full Panel

 An appearance by the Commissioner in front of the Panel/sub committee would most likely be in addition to a request for further information and a report being drawn up.