Project Salus

Project Salus, previously known as Kent Safe Schools, offers a range of innovative services in Kent to benefit children, young people, their families, schools, educational settings, professionals and communities, and is developing services to be delivered across the whole of the South East of England.

Their services include direct support to children and young people, working with families, accredited and non-accredited training of school staff and other professionals, policy review and development, and advice/guidance.

They strive to ensure positive outcomes by providing services that will improve the social skills, educational outcomes and emotional health and well-being of children, young people and their families.
