Appendix 2 KCC Current performance

Kent Jobs for Kent Young People (updated 21/11/13)

Kent Jobs for Kent Tourig People (updated 21/11/13)
	¥	Current performance
continue with at least 88 apprentices taken on each year, totalling 400 successful	88 per year (Commence Sept)	107 (2013) 303 cumulative
	New Target of 120 per year to 700 by 2017
There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levels	1000 over 24 months	590 apprentices
The number of apprenticeship starts overall will double and Level 2, 3 and 4 apprenticeships offered in Kent key sectors will increase by 10%	10 % overall increase	All Ages Level 2 (intermediate) 6,513, -7.7% Level 3 (Advanced) 4,568, 21.2% Level 4 (Higher) 181, 155.6%
There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so	Phase 2 35	Phase 2 37
that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levels	Phase 3 60	Phase 3 11
At least 50% of schools will have provided one or more apprenticeships which have been taken up successfully by young people by 2016	300	180 schools 30%
	KPI StatementThe KCC Apprenticeship scheme will continue with at least 88 apprentices taken on each year, totalling 400 successful apprenticeships delivered by KCC by 2016There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levelsThe number of apprenticeship starts overall will double and Level 2, 3 and 4 apprenticeships offered in Kent key sectors will increase by 10%There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levelsThere will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levelsAt least 50% of schools will have provided one or more apprenticeships which have been taken up successfully by young	KPI StatementTargetThe KCC Apprenticeship scheme will continue with at least 88 apprentices taken on each year, totalling 400 successful apprenticeships delivered by KCC by 201688 per year (Commence Sept)There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levels1000 over 24 monthsThe number of apprenticeship starts overall will double and Level 2, 3 and 4 apprenticeships offered in Kent key sectors will increase by 10%10 % overall increaseThere will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levels10 % overall increaseThe number of apprenticeship starts overall will increase by 10%Phase 2 35There will be a significant impact on unemployment among 18-24 year olds so that current levels reduce to 4000 to below 2008 levelsPhase 3