Opening remarks from the Chair of SACRE

Welcome to the 2013-14 Annual Report of the Kent SACRE. The SACRE has met three times during the academic year. We have continued our commitment to hold at least one meeting each year in a Kent place of worship. This year's visit was to the St Martin's church in Great Mongeham. We try to ensure that member presentations are a continuing feature of our meetings.

The SACRE has had a full year working towards the priorities outlined in the current Development Plan. The SACRE has also responded to the Religious Education Council's review of Religious Education and has written to the Secretary of State (through the Local Authority) as a way of contributing to the direction and health of Religious Education in the future. Our focus has been on developing a Youth SACRE. During this year we held a very successful inaugural event that was well supported by secondary schools. SACRE is now planning to make the Youth SACRE an annual event on the calendar.

As an increasing number of schools in Kent have converted to Academies, SACRE has made ongoing efforts to engage with all schools to ensure their continued compliance with requirements to provide high quality Religious Education and opportunities for Collective Worship. SACRE has worked with the Kent Association of Head teachers in order to seek membership of representatives of Primary and Secondary head teachers. Through communications with national appointing bodies, SACRE has tried to quickly fill vacancies that arise in Group 1. We believe it is important that we have a membership drawn from the Faith Groups and the range of schools found locally as they help to ensure that the SACRE is reflective of the diversity found in Kent.

SACRE continues to benefit from its partnership with the different faith groups, the Anglican diocesan education boards of Canterbury and Rochester and with Canterbury Christ Church University. We are also thankful for the support that is provided by our former AST colleagues. Not only are they each members or co-opted to SACRE, but they do provide a valuable link between Secondary Schools / Academies and ourselves.

SACRE would like to remind schools that Kent does not currently offer professional development for Religious Education. This, combined with the impact of the absence of RE from the English Baccalaureate in secondary schools, causes the SACRE great concern that Religious Education may not be apportioned the same importance as other subjects in the school curriculum. If, as a part of their monitoring cycle, schools identify RE or Collective Worship as an area that needs development, they need to look for their own bespoke training. The SACRE is grateful to Allan Foster, Consultant Adviser, who was funded by the Local Authority to support SACRE for the period covered by this report, for driving our work forward and keeping us abreast of developments in Religious Education nationally.

As Chairman, I would like to thank all those who serve on Kent SACRE, teachers, faith group representatives, and the vice chairman. The professional support of our consultant / adviser and the democratic support are also gratefully acknowledged. This team has worked very hard this year to provide support so that we are able achieve our aims despite challenges in a time of ongoing austerity. We are grateful for the ongoing support and interest of the Local Authority and for the active involvement of senior officers and Members in our activities. I believe that Kent SACRE is very well placed to face the challenges ahead as we continue to ensure that Religious Education and Collective Worship retain their rightful place at the heart of our schools.

INTRODUCTION

The 1988 Education Reform Act established the statutory requirement for all Local Authorities (LA) to establish a permanent body called a Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education (SACRE). The Kent SACRE is an independent body which advises the LA on matters concerned with the provision of Religious Education (RE) and Collective Worship.

The Statutory Duties of a SACRE

All LAs are required to establish a SACRE.

A SACRE's main function, as set out in the 1996 Education Act is:

“To advise the Local Education Authority upon such matters connected with religious worship in County schools and the Religious Education to be given in accordance with the Agreed Syllabus as the Authority may refer to the SACRE or as the SACRE may see fit”. (s.391 (1) (a))

Such matters include:-

“Methods of teaching, the choice of materials and the provision of training for teachers”.

A SACRE also:

- Can require the LA to review its current Agreed Syllabus (s.391(3))
- Must consider applications made by a head teacher that the requirement for Collective Worship in County schools to be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character shall not apply to the Collective Worship provided for some or all of the pupils in a particular school - “determinations”. (s.394(1))

It is a legal requirement that the SACRE publish an Annual Report to inform relevant parties, including schools, of the advice that SACRE has given to the Local Authority and of the actions taken to support RE and Collective Worship in schools using the Agreed Syllabus, that have resulted from this advice.

The broad role of the SACRE is to support the effective provision of Religious Education and Collective Worship in schools through:

- Giving advice on methods of teaching using the Agreed Syllabus Religious Education;
- Advising the LA on the provision of training for teachers;
- Monitoring inspection reports on Religious Education, Collective Worship and Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development (SMSC);
- Considering complaints about the provision and delivery of Religious Education and Collective Worship referred to by the LA;
- Asking the LA to review its Agreed Syllabus.

This report covers the work of the Kent SACRE during the academic year from September 2013 to August 2014.

Three full SACRE meetings were held during the period covered by this report. Details of SACRE Membership and attendance at meetings can be found in Appendix 3 and agendas and minutes of meetings can be found on the KCC website - www.Kent.gov.uk/SACRE.

The report is sent to the Head teachers/Chair of Governors of all schools in the county, The National Association of SACREs (NASACRE), and the Local Authority. The report is also available on the SACRE pages of the Kent website.

THE SACRE'S MISSION STATEMENT

Kent SACRE seeks to ensure that all pupils in our schools develop spiritually, academically, emotionally and morally, as well as socially, culturally and physically, so that they are able to understand themselves and others and cope with the opportunities, challenges and responsibilities of living in a rapidly changing world.

Kent SACRE aspires to:

- Enhance the quality of religious education and collective worship in Kent schools, and
- Celebrate the religious and cultural diversity found in Kent

Our vision is:

For schools to be able to:

- provide challenging learning through the RE Curriculum;
- promote an inspirational and aspirational ethos through meaningful and engaging Collective Worship; and
- contribute to community cohesion by engaging the whole school community in an exploration of identity and community in the local, national and global context.

For the Local Authority to:

- place a high priority on the role of RE and Collective Worship in schools;
- aim to provide sufficient resource to support schools in the above;
- work in partnership with SACRE to build links between schools and local faith communities.

For SACRE members to:

- represent their constituents in the spirit of promoting educational RE and Collective Worship within statutory regulations;
- represent fairly the views of their constituents as far as this is possible;
- work with other members of SACRE to model and promote respect for and understanding of different beliefs and lifestyles and a universal search for what it means to be human.

Our Aims:

To work with the Local Authority to:

- place a high priority on the role of RE and Collective Worship in schools;
- aim to provide sufficient resources
- work in partnership with SACRE to build links between schools and local faith communities.

To support schools in:

- raising standards of pupil attainment in RE to equate to national expectations of performance levels in other core subjects
- developing the spiritual dimension of the school
- improving the quality of collective worship
- making appropriate provision to meet the needs of all pupils represented within their school community.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Advice to the Local Authority (LA)

The SACRE advises the LA to bring this report to the attention of schools and governing bodies and, in particular, to highlight the following points:

- Schools need to be aware that no CPD programme for RE is currently being initiated by the LA; instead schools are expected to identify and access their own training needs through local and national organisations;
- In all maintained schools other than Voluntary Aided schools or schools of a religious character, but including Voluntary Controlled Schools, Religious Education has to be taught according to the Kent Agreed Syllabus. However, the Dioceses of Canterbury continues to recommend that all Church of England schools also follow the Agreed Syllabus and the Diocese of Rochester recommends that its Voluntary Controlled schools use the Agreed Syllabus;
- Kent SACRE continues to work with KCC to ensure that essential and appropriate supporting materials and resources are made available on the Kent Education Learning and Skills Information (KELSI) web pages. Currently the Agreed Syllabus and Non-Statutory Guidance can be accessed here:
http://www.kelsi.org.uk/curriculum_and_pupil_learning/curriculum/re.aspx
- All schools are reminded of their responsibilities to provide opportunities for daily Collective Worship. The place of collective worship in schools is upheld by statute and has been so since 1944. The basic requirement is that all registered pupils shall take part in an act of collective worship every day. There are only two exceptions to this: parents have the right to withdraw their child from collective worship and pupils in school sixth forms are permitted to decide for themselves whether to attend or not. The Education Reform Act (ERA) 1988 stipulates collective worship must be 'wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character'; it is deemed to be fulfilling this description if it 'reflects the broad traditions of Christian belief, without being distinctive of any Christian denomination'.
- SACRE guidance on Collective Worship "Gathering Together – Policy & Practice for Collective Worship" is currently being updated and will be linked to the KELSI web page for RE.
- Secondary schools are reminded that Religious Education is a statutory subject and that all KS4 students should follow an accredited course as is required in the Agreed Syllabus. Whilst RE is not being included in the English Baccalaureate it will count as part of 'Performance in Best 8 GCSE subjects' and is still a requirement by law;
- Academies are reminded of their statutory requirement to teach Religious Education in accordance with their Funding Agreement. Academies in Kent are recommended to use the Kent Agreed Syllabus to ensure that they fulfil their statutory requirements;
- Senior Leaders and Governing Bodies are urged to ensure that RE Subject Leaders/RE Co-ordinators are adequately supported in terms of professional development, opportunities to monitor and evaluate the subject, opportunities to train and support colleagues and in having an adequate budget in order to help raise standards in Religious Education;

- Schools are recommended to subscribe to “RE Today” in order to access regular publications which provide teaching and learning resources, subject knowledge, access to CPD opportunities, and access to the RE Today web based resources.
- Schools are encouraged to apply for the RE Quality Mark (REQM). Three levels – Bronze, Silver and Gold can be achieved and schools will be able to demonstrate their good practice in RE and have hard work recognised and rewarded (www.reqm.org);
- Schools are reminded that the Teachers’ Standards (Part One:3) require all teachers to demonstrate a good subject and curriculum knowledge and this is crucial within RE in order that pupils develop clear and accurate understanding of different faith communities and world views. Schools are urged to access appropriate CPD to meet the needs of the staff teaching RE;
- All teachers are urged to ensure that tasks set for all pupils are appropriately challenging and meet the needs of the learners. Again, this is a requirement of the Teachers’ Standards (Part One:1, 2 & 5);
- Schools are also urged to look at the range of activities provided for pupils. At all Key Stages there continues to be a difference in boys’ and girls’ attainment. Teachers are asked to use strategies that are known to be more effective with boys to try to narrow this gap;
- Schools are reminded of the expectation to assess pupils’ progress in Religious Education. The Agreed Syllabus Non-Statutory Guidance provides a lot of guidance on assessment and how to use the Level Descriptions for RE;
- The SACRE encourages secondary teachers to look at ways in which they might challenge pupils earlier on in Key Stage 3, especially in the development of reasoning and evaluative skills and in developing extended writing skills. Evidence shows that where schools do this it impacts significantly on performance in GCSE examinations. (The Agreed Syllabus has guidance on skill development and on Personal, Learning and Thinking Skills as well as other advice on Teaching and Learning processes);
- The SACRE will continue to send e-bulletin communications to schools as it is felt to be important and useful to keep schools as up to date as possible with new resources, developments in RE etc.;

AN OVERVIEW OF THE SACRE’S WORK:

Meetings

The full SACRE has met on three occasions over the academic year. Group pre-meetings are held from 9:15a.m. The full meeting beginning at 9:30a.m. Meetings end at 12:30p.m.

(1) 19th November 2013 - County Hall, Maidstone

The Draft Annual Report 2012-13 was debated by members. Key points highlighted included: GCSE and GCE examination results 2013 – showing a significant decline in short course entries; concerns about the fact that Ofsted school inspections did not report on non-compliance with statutory requirements for RE and Collective Worship; the status of RE in schools at a time when schools are focused on developing the new National Curriculum.

The Inaugural Youth SACRE meeting had recently taken place. Members welcomed some very positive feedback and thanked Richard Tyson for leading on this activity.

The meeting also discussed the need to review and restructure the SACRE Development Plan to reflect its statutory responsibilities and additional achievable objectives.

Co-opted Member, Jackie Grant provided a very interesting and informative illustrated talk on the Baha'i view of developing spirituality in young people. This was very well received by members who actively took part in a question and answer session.

(2) 5th March 2014 – County Hall, Maidstone

A second Youth SACRE event was agreed for November 2014, with Mrs Younosi and Mrs Grant agreeing to lead. It was agreed that an outside speaker be invited to this event. Members discussed the revised Development Plan that Mrs Martin had prepared. Issues raised included marketing CPD to schools, raising the profile of SACRE, the loss of SACRE documents from the new KELS website

Mr Foster reported to members of a meeting with Roger Gough, Cabinet Member for Education. Points discussed included: SACRE Annual Report 2012-13, Youth SACRE, SACRE involvement with Cabinet Committee for Education. Mr Gough agreed to attend a future SACRE meeting, and asked to be kept informed of developments and issues.

RE Curriculum Review and recent Ofsted Report on RE were also discussed. SACRE decided to note the contents of the suggested Programmes of Study, and to consider how these might be useful when the Agreed Syllabus is next reviewed. In the meantime SACRE anticipated that NASACRE and perhaps the Department for Education may clarify the status of this Curriculum Review and the Programmes of Study.

Members were invited to read the REC Review of RE document and to discuss the implications at a future meeting.

(3) 25th June 2014 – St. Martin's Church, Great Mongeham, DEAL

SACRE was pleased to learn that the Budget for 2014 -15 had been maintained at the same level as the previous year. Discussions about proposals for the spending of funding led to agreement that a visiting speaker from RE Today could be funded to attend the Youth SACRE meeting. In addition, it was agreed that SACRE would encourage schools to subscribe to "RE Today" and to apply for the REQM by offering matched funding up to 50% of total costs on a first come first served basis.

SACRE Chairman and Vice Chairman had attended NASACRE AGM. Both provided positive feedback from the event.

It was agreed to undertake a survey of a representative sample of schools across the four administrative areas of the county. Mr Foster presented a draft questionnaire for consideration.

Mr Manion welcomed members to the 13th century church where he had been a lay preacher until the previous year. The church was part of the benefice of Upper Deal and members were intrigued to climb the steps of the Bell Tower and admire the magnificent view. The meeting concluded with a light lunch and members agreed to make a donation towards church funds in appreciation for hosting the meeting.

Kent Youth SACRE, October 16th 2013

The first meeting of the Kent Youth SACRE took place on October 16th in the Council Chamber, County Hall, Maidstone.

Sixteen secondary schools participated. There were 31 students and 17 teachers as well as nine members of SACRE in attendance.

Group Discussions:

After an initial introduction students split into three different committees to discuss a key question:

- i) Why RE is important
- ii) What RE has helped me to understand and achieve
- iii) What helps students learn and make progress

After discussion in committee each committee gave feedback to the other members of the Youth SACRE. The specific feedback can be read in the minutes from the meeting. There then followed a wider debate amongst all Youth SACRE members about the importance and value of RE. A good range of students were able to participate in this and did so with insight and understanding. It was clear that a number of students were passionate about the importance and relevance of RE in the school curriculum. This was inspiring to hear. The quality of discussion and feedback from students was high. Throughout proceedings students were engaged, motivated and keen to be able to contribute to the shaping of the future of RE in Kent Schools.

Evaluation:

Both the evaluation survey and discussion with students, teachers and SACRE members present indicated that there would be strong support for another Youth SACRE. Evaluation feedback, and my own view, would suggest that potentially fruitful areas for discussion in future SACRE include discussion of:

- i) The specific content of the Kent RE syllabus
- ii) Ways forward to safeguard the future of RE in Kent schools. Indeed, the latter could be a powerful vehicle to help school leaders, members of KCC and national government recognise the importance of RE within school.

The basic format of introduction, committee work, refreshment break, feedback and Youth SACRE debate worked well. This all fitted into the allotted time, 2-5.00pm very effectively.

SACRE Development Plan

In 2013 SACRE reviewed its development plan to set out some areas of achievable activities over the coming years. The focus for this plan is to ensure that statutory requirements are met. The 2013 – 2014 Development Plan can be found as Appendix 2, attached to this report.

Professional Administrative Support

The Local Authority provides support in the following ways:

- a dedicated clerk to support the Committee
- funding for a dedicated Consultant Adviser to support and advise SACRE
- an annual budget to support the running costs of Committee meetings and for the SACRE to perform its statutory functions
- space on KELSI web pages for RE and Collective Worship resources

ADDITIONAL SACRE ACTIVITIESNational Links

Kent SACRE is a member of NASACRE (National Association of SACREs) and representatives attend national meetings. A representative also attends the regional meetings for SACRE.

Kent SACRE submitted a response to the REC Review of RE as part of a consultation on its draft recommendations. SACRE expressed concerns that the timeframe for this consultation process was inadequate, and that the structure and contents of the Programmes of Study required detailed examination and consideration.

In March 2013, the RE All Party Parliamentary Group, chaired by MP Stephen Lloyd, published a significant report 'RE: The Truth Unmasked', focussing on standards in RE, support for the subject and the supply of RE teachers nationally. The main findings show that:

- Over fifty per cent of those teaching RE in secondary schools have no qualification or relevant expertise in the subject
- In more than half of the 300 primary schools participating in the inquiry, some or all of the pupils were taught RE by someone other than their class teacher
- A quarter of all primary schools that responded said the lesson was given by a teaching assistant
- Primary and primary trainee teachers lack confidence and expertise in teaching RE, especially in diverse and multi-cultural classrooms
- Support for RE teachers at a local level has been dramatically reduced by local authority funding cuts and the academies programme
- Bursaries for RE trainees have been removed and there has been a radical reduction in applicant numbers for 2013/14
- Because of this lack of training and support many of those teaching RE are unable to meet the Department for Education's Teaching Standards, selling young people short in their schools.

Following a meeting with Roger Gough (KCC Cabinet Member for Education) SACRE wrote a letter to Michael Gove (the then Secretary of State for Education). The purpose of this letter was to highlight Kent SACRE's concerns about the low status of RE in schools, and how the situation in Kent reflected the same issues and concerns that had been identified in recent reports from the National Association of Teachers of RE (NATRE) on the impact of the E-Bacc on RE, and the All Party Parliamentary Group (APPG) report: "RE – The Truth Unmasked". SACRE requested Mr Gove to:

- Ask Ofsted to indicate in their school inspection reports whether schools are compliant or not with statutory or contractual requirements in their provision of RE and Collective Worship
- Restore Initial Teacher Training bursaries for RE trainees
- Include RE examination results in the data used to measure school performance
- Ask Ofqual to include RE in the next phase of GCSE and A Level examination reforms for first teaching in 2016.
- Ensure SACREs have the resources to carry out their statutory responsibilities effectively
- Request all schools to ensure that all teachers all staff responsible for teaching subjects are regularly able to undertake continuing professional development in all subjects they teach
- Require all academies and free schools without a religious character implement the local agreed syllabus for RE.

At the time of writing this report no response has been received from Mr Gove, nor from the new Secretary of State, Nicky Morgan.

Local Developments

During the period of this report, three Freedom of Information requests have been received. One of these concerned the accessibility of the Kent Agreed Syllabus, the other two were requests for information regarding Collective Worship determinations.

Mr Foster, Consultant Adviser, took part in a BBC Radio Kent Interview on the Future of RE in Kent schools. Issues raised included Academies programme, changes to GCSE & 'A' Level exams, introduction of new National Curriculum & RE's position, plight of lack of RE specialist teachers in schools.

Following publication of a NASACRE pamphlet for Academies, SACRE decided to modify this and send a copy to all Academies and Free Schools in Kent, with the intention of reminding these schools of their responsibilities to provide RE and Collective Worship in line with their Funding Agreement, and also to offer Academies the opportunity to engage with Kent SACRE.

In September 2013, SACRE published an article in Kent's "The Governor". The purpose of this was to bring to the attention of Governors the current issues concerning RE and Collective Worship, and to remind them of their statutory responsibilities. This also provided an opportunity for SACRE to make itself known to school governors across the county.

SACRE, in partnership with the Local Authority, continues to work behind the scenes to support schools as they fight to keep an exciting and stimulating, broad and balanced curriculum at the heart of what they offer to pupils of all ages. RE should be a significant part of that curriculum, because it creates opportunities for pupils to grapple with those deep and challenging questions about who they are, and what their place is in the rapidly-changing world around them. Kent pupils deserve the best RE that we can give them, because they are our future

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Locally Agreed Syllabus 2012

Section 390 of the Education Act 1996 requires Local Authorities to institute a review of the locally Agreed Syllabus five years after the completion of its last review. The last review process took place in 2011. The new syllabus, 'REact 2012', was required to be implemented in county schools from September 2012 and is being used successfully in many county schools. Feedback about the syllabus has been extremely positive. Academies, Independent and Free Schools in the County are invited to use the locally Agreed Syllabus.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

During this year, with the support of KCC, a series of CPD opportunities were offered to schools. Unfortunately, due to lack of schools buying – in, the secondary events were cancelled. Similarly, only one of three primary Subject Leader events took place. This was very well received by over 20 primary subject leaders. A similar picture emerged with CPD events offered by Liz Pope (former AST) to new RE teachers. A free event for Early Years teachers which was funded by SACRE and led by colleagues from Canterbury and Rochester Diocese was over subscribed and very well received.

SACRE does have concerns that schools do not seem willing to support CPD opportunities that involve costs. If schools are expected to support their staff with CPD opportunities provided by national bodies, e.g. NATRE, RE Today etc. then additional costs will be incurred.

MONITORING STANDARDS IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Ofsted Reports

SACRE has been considering, and analysing, OFSTED reports for Kent schools over the past year where there are references to RE and SMSC. This has helped in monitoring standards of RE.

SACRE discussed the most recent RE Subject Report from Ofsted – “Realising the Potential” (Ofsted 2013). The key issues which this report raised, and which were of concern to members included:

- low standards
- weak teaching
- problems in developing a curriculum for RE
- confusion about the purpose of RE
- weak leadership and management
- weaknesses in examination provision at Key Stage 4
- gaps in training
- the impact of recent changes in education policy.

School Self-Evaluation

The SACRE recommends that all subject leaders for RE in all schools should regularly evaluate the quality of provision in the subject to identify strengths and areas for development.

EXAMINATION RESULTS

Details of Kent schools’ results are yet to be included in this report

GCSE

The key outcomes of the 2014 GCSE results in England and Wales for Religious Education are as follows:

- 387,915 RS GCSE entries (combined short and full course) were recorded; a decrease of 8% from 2013 (420,151 entries)
- Full course entries increased by 7% from 251,063 in 2013 to 269,494 in 2014
- Short course entries fell dramatically by 30% from 169,088 in 2013 to 118,421 in 2014

When RS GCSE entries in England over the past three years are compared to those in Wales (where the EBacc and the average point score at GCSE have not been adopted as school performance measures), the following patterns emerge:

England

- Take up of the GCSE RS short course has fallen from 211,269 in 2012 to 99,601 in 2014 (-53%)
- GCSE RS full course entries in England have increased from 216,182 in 2012 to 258,067 in 2014 (19%)

Wales

- Short course GCSE RS entries have remained stable over the past three years (19,182 in 2012 compared with 18,820 in 2014)
- RS GCSE full course entries have increased from 10,409 in 2012 to 11,427 in 2014 (10%)

Overall this means that compared with 2012 nearly 70,000 fewer 16 year olds in England will complete key stage 4 this year having not gaining a qualification in Religious Studies (a drop of 15%).

This echoes research by the National Association of Teachers of RE (published in November 2013) that found that a third of community schools and over a third of academies without a religious character are still failing to meet their legal or contractual agreements to provide religious education for this key age group.

GCE 'A' LEVEL

The key outcomes of the 2014 A level results in England for Religious Education are as follows:

- 20,196 RS A level entries were recorded; nearly double (96%) the number in 2002/03 (10,313 entries were recorded in 2002/03)
- RS A level entries increased more than any arts, humanity or social science subject this year (up 5.3% on 2012/13)
- RS A level entries have increased more than any arts, humanity or social science subject over the past 10 years (the nearest is Economics with an increase of 57%)
- In line with other subjects the results are generally lower, but the percentage of students achieving A* at RS A level has increased from 5.4% to 6.8%

A summary of the GCSE full and short course and of the GCE AS and A level results for 2014 (with comparisons with previous years) is in Appendix 1.

Complaints about Religious Education

No formal complaints were received under Section 23 of the Education Reform Act 1988 regarding Religious Education in Kent schools.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

Schools are reminded that the publication, "Gathering Together – Policy and Practice for Collective Worship" produced by the Kent SACRE in 2008, gives support as well as guidance on Collective Worship for Kent Schools. This is currently being updated, and will be linked to the KELSI web page for RE in the near future.

Determinations

The 1996 Education Act (section 394 – 1) empowers a SACRE to grant the request of a head teacher for alternative Collective Worship, where it is considered that the nature of a pupil population makes it inappropriate to be wholly or mainly Christian.

In the year of this report, the SACRE has not received any requests from schools for a determination.

Complaints Concerning Collective Worship

No complaints were received under Section 23 of the Education Reform Act 1988 regarding Collective Worship in Kent schools.
