

Biography of Witness

Carol Infanti

Carol is a Commissioning Officer in the Strategic Commissioning team, Children's services. She currently manages the emotional wellbeing contract, and the children in care element of the child and young people mental health service provided by Sussex Partnership Foundation Trust. She is part of the core group which has been developing the emotional wellbeing strategy and which will be involved in the procurement of the new services.