- (2) The Panel must then go on to look at the specific circumstances of the case to determine whether they are sufficiently strong enough to justify the Panel exercising its discretion to disregard the Local Authority's policies.

THE DECISION

- (1) The Panel may decide to uphold the appeal in all respects.
- (2) The Panel may decide not to uphold the appeal in any respect.

(3) The Panel may decide to partially uphold the appeal. This can include meeting the appellants' wishes wholly or in part for a time-limited period. At the end of the time specified for the provision of home to school transport the Panel can review the circumstances of the case again. The Panel can also specify that additional information be made available at the review. This might include such things as up to date medical reports and school attendance records.

(4) If a parent requests a cash allowance, the Panel should consider this, taking into account the availability of alternative modes of transport and the personal circumstances of the appellant or parent. Mileage will normally only be paid for one return journey from home to school per day.

VARIATION TO THIS PROCEDURE IN RESPECT OF APPEALS FOR THE LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITY TO DESIGNATE A ROUTE FROM HOME TO SCHOOL AS HAZARDOUS.

1) For the purposes of considering an appeal that the nearest available route from home to school is hazardous in itself, the meeting will be open to the public, following the procedure set out above in all other respects.

2) The Appellant may also ask the Panel to consider his or her personal circumstances in the event that the Panel decides that the route is not hazardous in itself. This part of the appeal will be held under the provisions set out in Appendix 100A of the Local Government Act 1972, whereby the press and public (apart from the appellant) are excluded. The procedure set out above will be followed in all other respects.
