Biography

Steven Ackerley

Lead Senior Improvement Adviser (SIA), Kent County Council

Steven Ackerley is the KCC Lead Senior Improvement Adviser (SIA) for special schools and specialist resource provision in mainstream schools. He coordinates and provides school improvement advice, support and challenge to Local Authority Special schools. Steven provides SEND guidance for school governors and acts in the role of the SEND expert for Independent Review Panels.

Steven also identifies and develops the content and presentations for the Additional Educational Needs updates to mainstream primary and secondary schools across the county. Prior to his current role Steven has also worked in Senior Leader roles in four secondary schools which served communities in challenging socio-economic circumstances in London, South Yorkshire and East Sussex.
