Aims and Objectives

KCC has a duty to develop, maintain, apply and monitor a strategy for local flood risk management in Kent under the Flood and Water Management Act 2010. This strategy will set out how local flooding will be managed in the county.

Kent has a large population and a dynamic economy. Due to the historic development of the county around waterways and along the coastline, and its geography, steep hills and areas of impermeable soils, there is a significant risk of flooding from many sources. This includes local flooding sources, which are significant in Kent and threaten the safety and wellbeing of Kent's residents, and the sustainability of its economy.

Through this Local Strategy for Kent, we aim to improve the safety and wellbeing of Kent's residents and the economy of Kent through appropriate flood risk management. To do this we will work effectively with communities and partners, adapt to climate change, and utilise natural processes to provide multiple benefits, where possible. Any projects that are as a direct result of this Local Strategy will be subjected to a separate EQIA.

This Local Strategy will build upon the lessons KCC have learned from previous local strategies for Kent to reduce flood risk in the areas identified as at risk, will enable KCC to continue to develop an understanding of flood risk, and improve how we work together with partners and communities.

The objectives for this Local Strategy reflect the need to build on the improvements achieved to date and to address the challenges that we face now, and in the future. The objectives include: understanding flood risk, reduce the risk of flooding, resilient planning, and resilient communities.

All actions stated within this Local Strategy for Kent have been analysed to determine any potential positive or negative impacts on the protected characteristics. We have found that the actions stated to achieve Objective 4 may have potential impacts on protected characteristics, including age and disability; this is discussed further in Section C of this EQIA.

Kent's Local Flood Risk Management Strategy will be available on the KCC website and can be produced in other formats, if requested. We have considered whether the detail provided within the Local Strategy would have a negative or positive impact for the nine protected characteristics; we did not find any evidence to suggest this and have ensured the document is comprehensive for the general population of Kent with links to further information. For evidence, the county wide equalities data was reviewed to ensure the general population of Kent was considered.

Overall, the Local Flood Risk Management Strategy will continue to provide information in an accessible way for all protected groups, whilst fulfilling our obligations as laid out in the Flood and Water Management Act, and the 2013 Kent County Council Strategy.

Outcome of the analysis: No change.
