

KENT COUNTY COUNCIL

REGISTRATION OF RECEIPT OF GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

Before completing this form please see the Guide for Members on Registering and Declaring Interests, Gifts and Hospitality.

In accordance with the law, as reflected in the Council's Code of Conduct, I hereby register that I have recently received the following gifts and/or hospitality over the value of £100 in my capacity as a Member of Kent County Council.

Description of Gift or Hospitality

A ticket to the Dress Rehearsal of a new production of Carmen at Glyndebourne, accompanying David Smith, a Senior KCC Officer, and provided by Jasmin Vardimon, who is in charge of the choreography. The Jasmin Vardimon Dance Company opened recently in Ashford, and David Smith and KCC played a key role in making this happen, working with Ashford Borough Council.

These Glyndebourne Dress Rehearsal Tickets have no monetary value, and are made available, on a complimentary basis, to friends and contacts of the cast, in order to provide an audience for the Dress Rehearsal, to give it a more realistic feel. They are sometimes made available to buy by regular opera goers like David Smith, at a discounted price compared to the usual ticket price, but not in this case.
